NEW VARIETY IN CASAPARK RANGE

January 2018 — Casapark, the popular single-strip plank range by Bauwerk, gets a rustic and distinctive addition. The product line has been expanded to include exciting ‘used look’ surfaces. The Bauwerk range grows further, keeping up with the latest trends where individuality and variety are more important than ever before.

Distinctive variety
Lavish oak planks with beautiful colour shades are offered in vibrant and tranquil grades, with three different widths: This is what distinguishes the Casapark three-layer range. In addition to famous Bauwerk quality, Casapark single-strip planks offer numerous design options for an extraordinarily attractive price. The three widths can not only be used on their own, but also combined with various laying styles, creating a floor with individuality. This exciting range now features four new shades: Creta, Ambra, Avena, Grano.

‘Please clean thoroughly once’
Distinctive ‘used look’ products create new highlights in the Casapark range. The worn edges, cracks and beautiful patina are signature elements of these single-strip planks. The look of these rustic grade floors is exciting and authentic. They are also very easy to handle and require very little maintenance. The patina makes the structure of the wood clearly visible, creating a unique charm that captivates and elicits dreams of a long-gone past. Precisely because of their used appearance, these floors are the perfect choice for a fashionable, but individualised interior style that exudes warmth and a sense of nature.

Casapark ‘used look’ surfaces are made through an elaborate process, developing their unmistakable character in an enormous bath. As part of this process, the planks are thoroughly washed with pyramid-shaped stones, similarly to how ‘used look’ jeans are made. Then, the planks undergo special processing with mordants, creating unique traces of patina and use. In addition to a special wash, the ‘used look’ line is highlighted with filled lengthwise cracks that radiate rustic charm. There are three ‘used look’ shades in the Casapark range: Tabacco, Fango and Pietra.
